

8th Annual

FILM WEEK

University of Lethbridge

Jan. 30 – Feb. 3, 2023
Monday – Friday

Free and open to all
Popcorn and refreshments
English subtitles
All films will be held in PE 275

Monday, January 30
6:30 pm, PE 275

Les Conquérants (2013)
Comedy – PG13
Dir: Xabi Molia

Gallad and Noé meet at their father's funeral. Galaad is convinced that the Evil Eye has pursued them since their father stole a sacred relic and persuades Noé to act. The two men go in search of the stolen object and the luck that eludes them.

Tuesday, January 31
6:30 pm, PE 275

Un Barrage contre le Pacifique (2008)
Drama – PG13
Dir: Rithy Panh

An adaptation of Marguerite Duras' novel (1950). A widow in 1930s' French Indochina builds sea walls to protect her rice fields from flooding while her children dream of a better life in the city.

Wednesday, February 1
6:30 pm, PE 275

La faute à Fidel! (2006)
Drama, History – PG13
Dir: Julie Gavras

A 9-year-old girl weathers big changes in her household as her parents become radical political activists in 1970-71 Paris.

Thursday, February 2
6:30 pm, PE 275

Matthias & Maxime (2019)
Drama, Romance – 14+
Dir: Xavier Dolan

Hidden feelings come to light and threaten the bond of a group of friends in their late 20s.

Friday, February 3
3 pm, PE 275

Belle et Sébastien (2014)
PG
Dir: Nicolas Vanier

A solitary little boy meets a stray dog, and so begins a story of enduring friendship. The timeless tale of Belle and Sébastien tells the story of how Sébastien tamed Belle; the extraordinary adventures of a resourceful, adorable boy during the Second World War.