International Education Week highlights cultural diversity at the University of Lethbridge

The University of Lethbridge is hosting various events to celebrate International Education Week from Nov. 18 to 22 in collaboration with Students' Union Culture Week.

More than 85 countries are represented at ULethbridge each semester. Over 800 students and employees have roots outside of Canada, and International Education Week is an opportunity to learn more about the world outside our borders.

Several events may be of interest to the media:

Monday, Nov. 18 | 9 a.m.

Launch of International Education Week and Culture Week
Science Commons Atrium (Level 7)

Tuesday, Nov. 19 | 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Study Abroad Fair
PE Foyer

Wednesday, Nov. 20 | Noon to 12:30 p.m.

Australian Aboriginal Dot Painting
TH241

This session explores the rich tradition of Australian Aboriginal art with a hands-on dot painting activity.

Thursday, Nov. 21 | 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Living Library
Library Entrance/Exit

Instead of borrowing a book, the Living Library lets you borrow a person and learn about their country and culture.

Visit International Education Week for a full listing of the week's events.

Our University's Blackfoot name is Iniskim, meaning Sacred Buffalo Stone. The University is located in traditional Blackfoot Confederacy territory. We honour the Blackfoot people and their traditional ways of knowing in caring for this land, as well as all Indigenous Peoples who have helped shape and continue to strengthen our University community.
