

Kathleen Massey

Vice Provost, Students

Kathleen is a very experienced senior leader in student affairs, with a national track record of leading many transformations and innovations to advance student success.

As the Vice Provost (Students) at the University of Lethbridge in Canada, Kathleen leads Student Affairs and works with colleagues and students across the University to develop and deliver an exemplary student experience. An expert in strategic enrolment management (SEM), she chairs the SEM Executive, led the development of the institutional SEM plan, and works collaboratively to achieve the University's enrolment goals. Kathleen has held senior positions at postsecondary institutions across Canada, including at McGill University in Montreal, QC, the University of Calgary, AB, and Centennial College and York University in Toronto, ON.

She currently participates in the following national and local boards: CMEC (CICIC) Pan-Canadian Quality Assurance Framework for the Assessment of International Academic Credentials (QAF) Steering Committee (Member); MyCreds|MesCertif National Strategic Advisory Board (Chair); The Health Research Council for People of African Descent, Steering Committee (Member); Ecumenical Campus Ministry (ECM) Lethbridge, Board (University of Lethbridge representative).

Additionally, she is part of the Groningen Declaration Network (GDN), based in the Netherlands, Board of Directors (Current director and past president); and US-based Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education (NASPA) Region V, Advisory Board (Alberta Representative).

She is a co-author (2023) of Project Mobility: Expanding the Academic Document Supports for Displaced Persons (Including refugee, asylum seekers, and internally displaced persons).
