

IGBM 3592: MĀORI CULTURE AND BUSINESS PRACTICES

Applied Indigenous Management Issues

DHILLON
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To participate in IGBM 3592, you must:

- Be an Indigenous student
- Have completed IGBM 2500 or INDG 1000 or INDG 1010 (can be waived with permission from course instructor)

Participation is limited to 14 students.

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Dates

- May 5 – June 23

Trip Dates

- June 6 – June 20 (tentative)

Coursework

- The month before departure will include weekly assignments and preparing presentations to share with students in New Zealand.

Format

- Classes will be held in person in Lethbridge.

STUDY TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

The field study is in partnership with the University of Waikato in New Zealand. Their amazing team will be arranging trips and activities to teach you about their culture!

Activities will likely include:

- Traditional canoe on a river
- Māori history & creation story
- Treaty of Waitangi lesson
- Māori King site visit
- Māori language lesson
- Māori tribal governance
- Singing
- Māori business visits
- Exploring Rotorua
- Visit to a Māori elementary school
- Future Thinking Workshop
- Poraporoaki (farewell)

COST IF ACCEPTED

Covered

- Flight from Calgary to Auckland return
- Tons of fun and impactful activities within New Zealand
- Accommodations during the field study
- Almost all meals

$500 Non-Refundable Deposit

- Due March 28

Health Insurance

- ULSU Health & Dental plan covers travel abroad
- Other travel health insurance is approx. $50-100

Other

- Tuition
- Passport application/renewal
- Travel to/from Calgary
- Meals on weekends and at airports
- New Zealand ETA & tourist levy (approx. $120)
- Misc. expenses like an eSIM, outlet adapter, etc.

ACCOMMODATIONS

A few days of accommodations will be in a Marae. The remaining days will be shared hotel accommodations.

What is a Marae?

- A sacred communal gathering place (like a long house)
- Because a marae is a sacred place, you will be expected to follow proper etiquette

IMPORTANT DATES

March 24

- Application Deadline

March 26

- Notification of acceptance

March 28

- $500 non-refundable deposit due for accepted students

May 5

- Course begins

June 6 (to be confirmed)

- Departure to New Zealand

June 20 (to be confirmed)

- Return from New Zealand

June 23

- Final Individual Presentation: learning outcomes

FUNDING SUPPORT

This course is made possible by funding from the Dhillon School of Business as well as the Mastercard Foundation and the NCEWIL program. NCEWIL is dedicated to supporting Indigenous Work-Integrated Learning. If you would like to explore other WIL and experiential learning opportunities, contact Sheridan Macaulay at sheridan.macaulay@uleth.ca

APPLY NOW

Things you'll need for your application:

- Your passport expiry date (if you have one)
- A paragraph explaining why you would like to go
- A paragraph describing your volunteer, extracurricular, and/or work experience
- Your unofficial transcript (find on The Bridge)

Scan the QR Code or click here to apply now!

THANK YOU

Questions?